

Competency Statement UMC St. Radboud QM Diagnostics BV

The undersigned, the director of UMC St. Radboud QM Diagnostics BV states in relation to the competence of the department to perform diagnostic tests, analyze data, interpret and report the results that:

- The laboratory is accredited by the Dutch Accreditation Council in accordance with the ISO 17025 2005 under number L606. Certificate on the website.
- All diagnostic procedures (and subsequent results) listed in the scope in Annex 1 are included under this ISO17025 2005 accreditation
- Changes in the performance of a diagnostic test which are important for the referring client will be clearly communicated.
- Doubts about the reliability and / or corrections to results will be communicated immediately to the relevant referring client(s).
- The laboratory participates in quality assessment schemes for the available tests, within the discipline generally accepted organizations. Certificate of participation is on the website.
- If, for a diagnostic test no quality assessment test is available by one of the generally accepted organizations, the laboratory will start an alternative manner of assessment to determine the validity of the test methodology for the described application.
- All results are authorized by trained supervisors.
- The laboratory and the management are yearly visited by the Dutch Accreditation Council.
- The UMC St. Radboud QM Diagnostics BV acts in accordance with the privacy policy that has been established in the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR). This implicates that every person within the UMC St. Radboud QM Diagnostics BV abides by the privacy policies to ensure that client information is only available to relevant professionals.

Martin Toft
Director UMC St. Radboud QM Diagnostics BV